

THE PARISIAN CHRISTMAS BAKE OFF

Welcome to the most celebrated patisserie competition in Paris – ready, steady, bake! Watching snowflakes settle on the Eiffel Tower, Rachel Smithson’s cosy English village feels very far away – as, thankfully, does her commitment-phobic ex, probably already kissing someone else under the mistletoe. But Rachel hasn’t come to Paris to mope she’s come to bake. Hard. Because the search...

Reader's Opinions

3.5 Stars! I knew from the blurb and the front cover that I was going to love The Parisian Christmas Bake Off and I certainly wasn't wrong. This is an entertaining novella full to the brim of baking, romance and Christmas festivities. Rachel Smithson, primary teacher in the small town of Nettleton, is having a difficult year until her friends,...

I loved this book, every single little thing about it. It is laugh out loud funny, emotional and has a gorgeous leading man! I felt as though I was in Paris at Christmas, sampling all the wonderful food brought to life in front of my eyes. In fact, the only bad thing I would say...
