

THE BAD

New Family - New Life - Ancient Evil
When eight year old Solomon and his family move to Birchover village, in Derbyshire, they never realised that the move would change their whole world forever! After asking his mother's permission to go out, Solomon ventures into the wood at the bottom of his garden. After walking for some time and finding himself lost, he sees a light quickly approaching. As it stops in front of his...

Reader's Opinions

I recently completed The Faeries of Birchover Wood . It is an exquisite children's book but it is not only for children. It is extremely imaginative and creative. Rutter's descriptions are amazing. If you like faeries, and beauty you will love this book. The faeries are unique. He has created personalities and the descriptions and names...

Review by Award Winning Children's Book Author, Diane Mae Robinson
This is an incredible fantasy/adventure story. I was swept up into the adventure early in the story by the strong plot line and strong characters of this other world. This book has everything a great book should have. The author has created a magnificent world of faeries,...
