

GOOD AS GOLD

While searching for his missing honey pot, Pooh and his friends see a beautiful rainbow. Owl tells them there's supposed to be a pot of gold at the end, so they all set out in search of the treasure. Instead, the friends stumble upon other precious finds; a rock, a robin's egg, and a nest. The gold eludes them, but Pooh saves the day when he finds his missing honey pot and fills it with berries in the colors...

Reader's Opinions

This book is suitable for nursery and primary age children. At the beginning of the book Winnie the Pooh is counting his honey pots and notices one of them is missing. Roo comes hopping in the door and tells Pooh to come look at the rainbow outside. When he gets outside he finds Owl and Tigger. They set off to find the pot of...
