Reader's Opinions

I wouldn't normally read this kind of book but I took a chance and loved it. I was surprised to hear that this was the Author's first book. Amazing stuff I will be buying the second book very soon.

I was very skeptical about this book. And not sure if it would be something I would enjoy given the religious content. But never did i feel as though the book was being pretentious or "preachy" about faith, religion and belief in God. in fact I found myself really connecting with the main character Aaliya...
