Reader's Opinions

Violets are Blue is good book and is an enjoyable read. The plot is never boring and seems to be always moving at a solid pace. This was a detective/ crime story but it was so immersive due to its baffling murders and intriguing plot. The main detective (also the main character) is a man named Alex Cross who is a nationally acclaimed...

In typical James Patterson fashion, Violets are Blue begins in an explosive way. Alex Cross's partner and girlfriend has just been murdered in a completely defiling way. At the scene of the crime, the Mastermind calls Alex to taunt him. The Mastermind begins calling Alex almost every day, at all hours, threatening, teasing Mystery One....
