Reader's Opinions

This installment of the Bess Crawford series begins with a flashback of ten years when she was a young teen in India. As always, the mystery revolves around military men connected with the Colonel Sahib and Simon. We are given a bit more insight into those families...

Some interesting characters and one intriguing piece of backstory, but the plot is a train wreck. Shall we count the coincidences? In chronological order(spoilers ahead):1) The mystery surrounds the murder of a family in Hampshire. On the day in question, Lt. Wade, stationed in India, a former foster child of...
