Peek Inside the Book

A diferencia del estalinismo y otras dictaduras que se apropiaron, sin ms, del poder, el nazismo se sustent en una base popular. Laurence Rees, Auschwitz //

Japanese soldiers split open the stomachs of pregnant women and bayoneted the fetuses; they tied up local farmers and used them for target practice; they tortured thousands of innocent people in ways that rival the Gestapo at its worst; and they were pursuing deadly medical experiments long before Dr. Mengele and Auschwitz. Laurence Rees, Auschwitz: A New History //

Reader's Opinions

THE FLOWERS IN THE WINDOWBOXWhen you read about the Nazis there's always this strange contradiction - their famous obsession with order, with following orders, with classification, rules, hierarchy, and all of that, is superimposed upon a regime which was most of the time in chaos, ministries competing with other ministries, states...

Tan duro que acabas de leerlo llorando y con ganas de vomitar.
