Reader's Opinions

The pictures in this book are captivating and filled with colors. The different shading and usage of colors makes it stand out even more. This story is about a duck that is always doing something new, something different to entertain his peers. It's an excited story for young children because it'll keep them flipping the pages just...

I love Tilly, and I'm glad she got to be her silly self again. It was sad to see her dejected. It's a good apology story and about unconditional love, enjoying others for...
