

THE LOVE PROGRAMME

Thanks to an embarrassing incident involving a wedding and her ex-boyfriend Marcus, Lucy has to leave her home town in a hurry and needs a place to escape for a while. Best friend Fiona is convinced now would be a good time for Lucy to get herself a new life with some potential for romance thrown in. Fate seems to agree when Lucy is given the once-in-a-lifetime chance to star in a...

Reader's Opinions

I enjoyed the very British feel to this book. It made me smile and miss my very British grandparents. I didn't really connect to the characters on a deeper level, the emotional attachment wasn't there, but I did enjoy the story. This was a fun book, clean and Happily Ever After-ish.

After her best friend tells her about a TV show, The Programme, Lucy Strokes has an opportunity to go to Scotland for some fun and romance. She will get to meet and date someone new, in the hope it will help her to forget her childhood sweetheart, Marcus. Paul is the owner of the Scotland lavish home...
