

BRIAN BORU: EMPEROR OF THE IRISH

One thousand years ago, during the Viking Age, an extraordinary young man was born in Ireland. His people, plagued by warfare, were weary not only from the Vikings' brutal raids along the coast, but also from the continuous warring among local chieftains. The Irish had become a downtrodden race. But a real-life hero changed the destiny of Ireland. This is the story of Brian Boru, who as a...

Reader's Opinions

I can't even remember how old I was when I read this, and yet details still stick out to me from having read it. I loved this book!

Great Fictional Irish Story!!!Wow!!! What a wonderful book. Everything is on point, The Plot, The Character Development. Very Descriptive Scenes. Its Folklore meeting History. I enjoyed reading and watching movies about the Vikings, and this book peaked my interest, that why I downloaded it...
