Peek Inside the Book

And on that note, why are they called the No Name Mountains? Moore continued as he stoked the fire, poking at it with the end of a long stick. Perhaps because they have never been given a name, Oliver suggested with a wry twist to his lips. But if they are called the No Name Mountains, then they have been given a name, and therefore they cannot be No Names. They must be given a true name. By that logic they...

Reader's Opinions

A really fun fairytale with humour and great characters. None of the characters were stereotypical and the morals of the tale were deftly woven into through the storyline. I suspect this will be a reread in a year or two :)
