

SACKED

It pays to be a player. A star football player that is. I'm in trouble yet again but the school needs me for the big game so thankfully I'm not getting kicked out. The only catch is I have to bring my grades up by the end of the semester. I don't know how I'm going to do it. School is just not my thing. And with all of the late night fraternity parties and the long...
