Reader's Opinions

This book had so much potential and it just fell flat for me. Set in Amsterdam, a troubled young man on a work trip with his father buys a Japanese mask which turns out to be haunted. I know this is a teen book, but even so the characters were one dimensional, the...

A boy visiting Amsterdam buys a mask which sucks him into the past. The first 150 pages of the book didn't really go anywhere and the characters were bland (it read like padding). Then a couple of chapters from the end the story actually started and the book came to life. It would be a much better book as a short...
