Peek Inside the Book

Sweet Jovah singing, he had slept beside her all night, and kept her warm with his wings; and perhaps he did not hate her after all. Sharon Shinn, Archangel //

And if I should leave you, for any reason," he added, tightening his grip as she struggled to free her hand, "I will return to you. That is as certain as the sun rising tomorrow morning and the thunderbolt falling tomorrow night. That is as sure as the god's existence. I will come back to you, or...

Reader's Opinions

Not going to lie, at times the willful miscommunications and misunderstandings made me want to SCREAM, but I adore Sharon Shinn and I enjoyed being swept away by this story. I'm glad I finally got around to reading it.

In the world of Samaria, there are angels and people. The angels being very powerful, with the the Archangel as the most powerful of them. The current Archangel will soon step down from his position and be taken over by the angel Gabriel. Gabriel...
