Reader's Opinions

My husband gets a little worried when I go on my Snapped and ID Channel marathons, and every once in awhile I need a true crime book fix. This one is one of those stories that you know how it ends but the author manages to keep you interested throughout. Casey does presents the facts...

This author did a terrific job of research, checking sources, interviewing witnesses, etc., to pull together a page turner. This true story depicts a vivacious, extroverted, joyful young woman, a mother of three, who was murdered by her adulterous, sociopathic, narcissistic, vain husband who was supposedly a minister (although he gives...
