Peek Inside the Book

Canadian winters are long. Life is hard and so is ice. Douglas Coupland, Souvenir of Canada //

Reader's Opinions

Douglas Coupland's casual survey of all things Canadian -- well, not all things, since there would later be a sequel. It's interesting to watch his curator's eye meet up with his late-blooming sense of nationalism. There isn't a whole lot of writing in the book, but it takes a long time to get through, because interspersed with his...

Read this in preparation for an upcoming trip to Vancouver. Souvenir of Canada is a way of explaining Canada to those who know little about it. Coupland takes subjects in alphabetical order and offers historical, sociological, and personal views about each. Photographs and art are also used to great effect to convey a sense of what...
