2009 Best Book Award from APMA2009 Hackmatack Children's Choice Winner of the 2009 Lillian Shepherd Memorial Award for Excellence in IllustrationA positive, heartwarming portrayal of North Preston past and present; one of Nova Scotia's most negatively-portrayed Black communities. This touching poem from spoken-word artist and poet Shauntay Grant offers a child's perspective on growing up in a tight-knit community. Short staccato lines, musicality and the use of real spoken language, and breathtaking illustrations using real models from the community combine in a sensory...

Reader's Opinions

Beautifully written, and stunning artwork. My niece loved this book so much because it was written about Nova Scotia that we read it three times before bed. Excellent incorporation of Loyalist and Maroon history.

A beautifully illustrated, poetic celebration of childhood memories of growing up in North Preston, Nova Scotia, a community significant in African-Canadian history.
