Peek Inside the Book

The morning sun was a grinning, red-toothed warrior, come to slay the night. Bloody and quick, it tore through the night-riding clouds sitting on the purplish, rolling sea and flung a silver-white spear across Melagi, abruptly turning the great volcano that dominated the island from gray shadow to the color of bright jade. The night-wet...

Reader's Opinions

Another novel by Homer Hickam, with characters from "The Keeper's Son." Takes place during WWII and incorporates fictionalized meetings with WWII soldiers John F Kennedy and Richard Nixon.

Fascinating story BECAUSE it takes events and people with which/whom we are all familiar and weaves around them a very credible explanation for things which have no recorded, historical explanation. If this seems circuitous, I...
