

MARRY IN HASTE

Camilla Forest, a lovely young refugee from France, had married the proud and sardonic Lord Leominster. There was only one problem: she was falling in love with her husband. And they had agreed that theirs was to be a marriage in name only. Suddenly, Leominster was sent to Lisbon on a diplomatic mission. Or so Camilla thought, until she discovered that he was really a spy. Now both their lives depended on the success of...

Reader's Opinions

Read It Again and AgainA wonderful marriage of convenience tale. Reminiscent of Georgette Heyer. The plot has everything..an intelligent heroine a brooding hero, action, suspense and of course a happy ending
