

ENOUGH

Jesse can do the math: Ezra's perfect, he isn't, and this relationship is doomed. Until the accident forces Jesse to recalculate. Jesse has never had a real boyfriend before. He's a firefighter, and that's all that anyone's seen before—a quick and thrilling screw, and a story for the future. So when he lands Ezra Pryce, the most beautiful man in the whole of Brighton, Jesse can't quite understand why Ezra is still here eight months down the line. Not that...

Reader's Opinions

BR with Mandy*reads obsessively*I met the author at the UK Meet in Bristol this year and I was totally astonished, that such a young guy had already written so many books! As the others - classical music combined with depression - didn't sound like what I want to read for unwinding or entertainment, well this one sounded very interesting....
