

DRAGONWING: TAKE FLIGHT

A year ago, William Town would have been happy to get adopted, to change his name, and to start anew. Not anymore. Forced away from Sophie and the society, he feels more isolated than ever, despite his new guardian's lavish efforts to make him happy. His friends in MCEPS are just as reluctant to let him go as he is to leave, managing to arrange expeditions he can take part in. But when danger is...

Reader's Opinions

This one was okay, but It wasn't NEARLY as good as the first one. the writing was boring, and it didn't have the same captivating effect that was clear in the first one. I barely finished it. sorry.
