

DON'T NAME THE PUPPY

Dear Author,I woke up one day to find a half-naked kid with a goofy hat in my kitchen eating my cereal, but that was just the beginning. He's my roommate's fuck buddy, so why can't my roommate entertain the kid? Instead, he's imprinted on me like some overgrown duckling and now I can't get rid of him or the litter of kittens...

Reader's Opinions

FREE Read!A short and cute read about a college freshman pinning for an older guy he met the morning after a hook-up. What I like best about this free story is the slow burn and tangible relationship development between the two characters with the added bonus of adorable kittens! I had to scratch my head about why the story's title...

A great story that really captures college dorm life and young first lovelust. Light and fun and fluffy (of course, because kittens!) with great dialogue and a realistic storyline. I like that there was no insta-love. Will definitely read more by this author.
