

THE TEAHOUSE OF THE AUGUST MOON

A young American officer and his efforts to impose efficient Western ways on a simple little village on Okinawa right after World War II. The American Colonel in command at Okinawa thought he might win General's stars if Okinawa had modern housing, schools, progressive organizations and profitable business. But the Colonel's plans laid an egg in Tobiki village. captain Fisby, in charge there, just couldn't get...

Reader's Opinions

Ironico, simpatico, semplice. Una storia davvero... d'altri tempi.

Much better and funnier than the movie.
