

THE ROMANOV SISTERS: THE LOST LIVES OF THE DAUGHTERS OF NICHOLAS AND ALEXANDRA

They were the Princess Dianas of their day—perhaps the most photographed and talked about young royals of the early twentieth century. The four captivating Russian Grand Duchesses—Olga, Tatiana, Maria and Anastasia Romanov—were much admired for their happy dispositions, their looks, the clothes they wore and their privileged lifestyle. Over the years, the story of the four Romanov sisters and their tragic end in a basement at Ekaterinburg in 1918 has clouded our view of them, leading to a mass of sentimental and idealized hagiography. With this treasure trove of...

Reader's Opinions

You would think with all that has been written about this family there would be nothing more to say, but as she did with Queen Victoria in A Magnificent Obsession: Victoria, Albert, and the Death That Changed the
