Reader's Opinions

Basil Duke Lee, from age 11 to 17, is the subject of the first set of short stories by F. Scott Fitzgerald. "He Thinks He's Wonderful" stands out as a heartrending and wonderful story of adolescence. Basil's goal is to be the most admired and popular boy of his social circle and he thinks he has hit upon a tactic that will work to attract...

Marvelous period stories of Basil Duke Lee (thinly disguised younger F. Scott), and other stories about Josephine Perry. Witty, lovely, and charming short stories. God, could the man write!!
