Reader's Opinions

Andrea Gillies' first novel The White Lie (Houghton Mifflin, digital galley) is both a country-house saga and literary mystery, perfect for fans of Gosford Park. Michael Salter is 19 when he vanishes from the family estate in the Scottish highlands. His young aunt Ursula, emotionally stunted since a childhood tragedy, claims she has...

This book confused me. It had me jumping everywhere all over. I feel like it took me forever to read because I had to go back every couple pages to see if I was in a flash back or present, and remember who the characters were. They were not laid out well enough to remember. It was read from Micheal's point of
