Reader's Opinions

In The Detectives Lover, Aliyah Burke did a fine job of marrying suspense with a great love story. The suspense and whodunits kept me hooked with great pacing, and while the love scenes were hot, they never detracted from the overall tone of the story. This was truly one of Aliyah Burke's better novels. It reminded me vaguely of the movie Four Brothers but clearly with a different spin. The combination of mystery, suspense, believable plot line and characters, as well as steamy UNRUSHED romance was perfectly done. I appreciated the fact that Fallon was a very strong and independent...
