Peek Inside the Book

It was true. There really was no limit to the ways in which you could say the wrong thing to your children. You offered an olive branch and it was the wrong...

He really did not care whether he survived or not, so long as it rendered him unconscious and absolved him of responsibility. Mark Haddon, A Spot of Bother //

Reader's Opinions

After Curious Dog, I was eager to read another book by the same author. I couldn't identify with the characters at all. I found myself wanting to shake some sense into them. I know characters shouldn't be perfect, but come on! I made myself finish it. While it does delve into the thought process of someone with acute anxiety and fear...
