Reader's Opinions

I'd promised myself I was done with English authors. So much time I've wasted reading crap. This book was the start of my journey back to loving the Brits! It was a variety of short stories involving all the different types of relationships between men...

Im delighted to find a male writer who describes the understandings and misunderstandings between men and women without resentment or misogyny. Spellbound is a quirky, perceptive collection of stories about men in thrall to women. The settings are varied: I enjoyed the way Finland, and Fins, popped into many of the tales like a motif....
