Peek Inside the Book

Life, too, is senseless unless you know who you are, what you want, and which way the wind blows. Ellen Raskin, The Westing Game //

Reader's Opinions

I read this little book for the first time not as a child - but as an adult. I was looking for a book to kick off our Junior High book club and picked up the Westing Game to see if it might be a good place to begin. I wish that I had found...

Ah, The Westing Game, the kids book that is about a man who is murdered (or was he?) and the 16 heirs (or are they?) who could win his fortune (or will they?) if they can figure out who killed him (or something). Sorry for being vague ... it's a mystery, folks, and I don't want to give anything away. You'll thank me later! (Or...
