

WOUTERTJE PIETERSE

"Woutertje Pieterse" (or The History of Walter Pieterse) by Multatuli was his second novel and published posthumously in 1890. It is also the most famous work by the author after "Max Havelaar." The history of Wouter Pieterse appeared as fragments in the Ideas, which also forms an organic whole with it. The story is about a dreamy and poetic msterdam boy, Wouter Pieterse, who grows up in a middle-class environment in the...

Reader's Opinions

Het is een geniale parodie op de bekrompenheid van die tijd, vooral ook hoe de buurvrouw eigenlijk op meesterlijke wijze "uitgescholden" wordt door de broer van Woutertje die schoolmeester is.

I remember it to be great and entertaining, but I was still in Highschool.
